

The Pioneer

Reading Memorial High School

A tribute to The Pioneer. Over the last 100 years all of the past Reading High School yearbooks have been called "The Pioneer". Though recent years have left the name out we decided it was time to bring it back. We wanted to recognize the tradition and carry on a piece of RMHS history. We hope you enjoy it.

Instilling a joy of learning and inspiring the innovative leaders of tomorrow

Dear Reading Memorial High School Class of 2015,

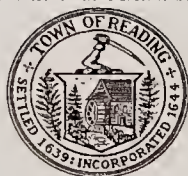

Congratulations on completing your course of studies at Reading Memorial High School! You should be very proud of what you have accomplished during your time in the Reading Public Schools. I have had the opportunity to attend many of your events and observe many of your learning experiences during your four years here at Reading Memorial High School. You have excelled in academics, drama, music, extra-curricular activities, community service, and athletics. You have been role models for your peers and have surpassed the bar that has been set by your teachers, advisors, coaches, and parents. It has been an honor and a privilege to be the Superintendent of Schools for such an outstanding group of young men and young women.

Walt Disney once said, "We keep moving forward, opening new doors and doing new things, because we are curious, and curiosity keeps leading us down new paths." You will have some amazing opportunities along the different paths that you will take on life's journey, each with its own unique set of curiosities, challenges, experiences, and opportunities. No matter which path you choose, I encourage each of you to follow your dreams and bring them to life through imagination and hard work...no matter how impossible they may seem.

On behalf of the Reading School Committee, the administration and staff of the Reading Public Schools, I congratulate you on completing your education here in Reading and wish you a healthy, happy and successful future.

Sincerely,

John F. Doherty, Ed.D.

RMHS Class of 2015....CONGRATULATIONS, YOU HAVE ARRIVED!!!

As a class, it is amazing to a new principal like me to see all that you have collectively accomplished in your final year! Your work ethic in the classroom, in athletics, in the arts, and in your numerous activities has set a standard for your younger peers to live up to for years to come. Yet, even more impressive than your long list of accomplishments has been your commitment to help others, to take pride in your community, and to make a difference in this world. Time and time again, over the course of this year, I found myself humbled and inspired by the different worthy causes and initiatives you Seniors would take on. The topping on all of this good citizenship and excellence, you ask?...that the Senior Class of 2015 has a great sense of humor that welcomed "the new guy" day in and day out! Your friendly hello's and welcoming smiles made me feel at home in the RMHS Community the moment I walked in! SENIORS—thank you for being such an extraordinary group of young men and women. You've forever changed RMHS for the better...now do the same for the world...no matter where you go!

All the best,

Mr. Bakr

Dear Class of 2015,

As you prepare to depart from Reading Memorial High School on your journey of new, exciting, challenging endeavors, it is understandable if you are somewhat apprehensive, quixotic, and anxious. I, too, share these sentiments as I am retiring from Reading Memorial High School and am looking forward to what the future may bring. After a long highly successful and enjoyable career in education, I am pleased to be leaving with a group of ladies and gentlemen as fine as the Class of 2015. You have comported yourself with class, character, and distinction; you have been a pleasure to be associated with the past four years; and, you have typified the outstanding people and students that Reading Memorial High School has to offer.

Most assuredly, I have been proud, blessed, and honored to work in such a fine school district as Reading which values and promotes quality learning and instruction, possesses students who are challenged, motivated, and dedicated to expand their educational pursuits and horizons, faculty and staff who on a daily basis are committed to incite their students and themselves to become constant and lifelong learners, and parents and members of the community who are involved, loyal, and supportive.

Class of 2015, I wish you the best, wherever life may take you, and I hope that our paths cross in the future. Congratulations on a job well done!

Respectfully,
Michael Scarpitto
Assistant Principal

P.S. Always remember that you, the Class of 2015, were the ones who instituted the Reading Memorial High School Victory Bell, and do not forget the Time Capsule should be excavated on October 28, 2064.

Dear Class of 2015,

I would like to take this opportunity to applaud you on an outstanding senior year and on the successful completion of your high school career. I hope that you will carry great memories of your time here at RMHS with you throughout your lifetime.

During the past two years as your Assistant Principal, I have seen tremendous potential and remarkable talent that you have demonstrated in the classroom, on the playing fields, and on stage. I have been inspired by your genuine enthusiasm, and the care and kindness that you have shown one another.

The diverse contributions that you have made to RMHS and to the Reading Community have been invaluable. You have left a legacy of greatness in Reading and now, I look forward to see how you share this greatness with the world.

I wish you happiness and peace in all of your future endeavors.

Spring 2015

Dear Members of the Class of 2015:

Congratulations on a fantastic high school career. It seems like just yesterday you entered Reading Memorial High School as freshman and in the blink of an eye you are graduates. During your time at RMHS I have witnessed many outstanding accomplishments. In the classroom, on stage, in the gymnasium and on the athletic fields your enthusiasm for learning was always evident. When I think about the Class of 2015, I have fond memories of all the positive things your class has done. Fundraisers for charity, band/drama events, sporting events and other school activities come to mind. You have truly set the bar high for the underclassmen.

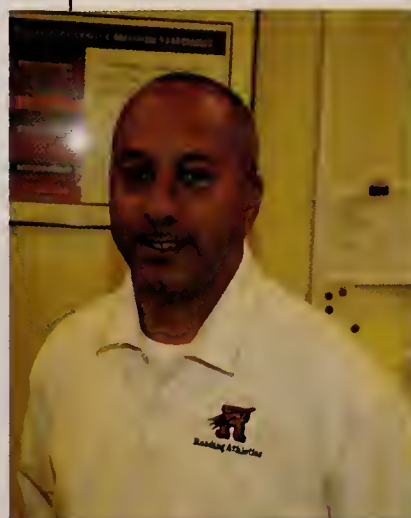

The leadership your class has provided over the last four years has been amazing. Your dedication and hard work will be missed by all at RMHS. You all have been a positive influence on everyone at Reading Memorial High School. RMHS Class of 2015, you should be proud.

Thank you, Class of 2015 for being a valuable part of the Reading Memorial High School Community over the past four years. I wish you all the best of luck in the future and all that the future brings. Most importantly be healthy, happy and be safe.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Zaya

Dedication to Michael Scarpitto

Mr. Scarpitto began teaching English and coaching football at RMHS in 1977. He left to pursue an Assistant Principalship at another high school, and returned to RMHS in 2000. Mr. Scarpitto never pursued a principalship because he wanted to always be able to stay connected to the students on a daily basis. His favorite thing about RMHS is hands down the students. He thoroughly enjoys working with all of us. He also feels very gratified working alongside such knowledgeable and talented colleagues. Mr. Scarpitto is known by the staff as someone who "bleeds red and black" because of his commitment and loyalty to RMHS. He is very proud of having brought, "The High Five" Award to RMHS. Everyone knows that he writes a letter about each recipient, but he also brings the photos to the newspaper, the Reading Community Bank, Stop and Shop, and Market Basket to be posted. Most people don't know how involved the endeavor is, but he has done it all since starting the High Five way back when. Mrs. Scarpitto attests that her husband ALWAYS tried to deal with students in a fair and compassionate way. Mrs. Scarpitto states, "He never told on anyone against students which is what I think makes him a great disciplinarian. To know that someone feels comfortable enough to walk into his office to talk says it all. He holds no resentment to students and knows that kids change and evolve like we all have. Mr. Scarpitto will often comment that the student who was problematic as a freshman, is typically a very different senior. RMHS is losing a caring, committed educator who has left an impact on students and faculty. Whoever takes over the job after him has some big shoes to fill. Thank you Mr. Scarpitto for making all your years at RMHS memorable ones."

In Memory of Nate Doiron

The yearbook is also dedicated to the memory of Nate Doiron.

Dear Class of 2015,

When we were freshmen, we were told time and time again that high school would fly by. Back then, to us, being a senior seemed light years away. But after countless sporting events, drama shows, concerts, dances, two proms, club meetings and fundraisers, we finally understand what they were all talking about. Looking back, it seems as though everything passed within the blink of an eye.

Although we don't like to admit just how many weekends throughout the year we spent hunched over our laptops, trust us it was a lot, we all really enjoyed putting together a book that represents our past four years at RMHS (we tried to leave out the embarrassing bits). So, whether you're signing a friend's, letting it collect dust at your parent's house, or showing it to your grandchildren, we really hope you enjoy it and remember RMHS fondly, we know we do.

We'd like to thank Madame Festa, Tom Keeley, Christina Hodges, Mrs. Donahue and our awesome staff for helping us put this book together.

Thank you,

Dance like it hurts to stand still Thank you to my friends and family for always standing by my side.
To my LaPierre girls: thank you for letting me move to my own beat and being the best

"You're braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think."

dancing partners a girl could ask for.
-Christopher Robin

Congratulations class of 2015!

Althea Wolfe

Thanks to my family for tolerating me.

"Hey, nerds! Who's got two thumbs, speaks limited French, and hasn't cried once today? This moi."
-Liz Lemon

"Pewwy open the door"- Papa Woody

Thanks to my family for helping me all through my life. Thanks to all the friends I've made along the way and shout out to the boys MF JP AB CG BG RH for all the memories through the years.

Erin Woods

Can't believe I actually made it. Thank you to the best family in the entire world for believing in me all along. I am so lucky to have you guys.

Shout out to the female chickens, Carol, Tristan, and all my friends, both near and far. From across the street, to across the globe, you've all made these 18 years unforgettable.

RMHS, thanks for providing my diploma and some hot cops.

Ryan Wynns

To my family, thanks for everything you've done for me. I don't know where I would be without your help and guidance. I love you.

To my friends, thanks for always being there. We've had a lot of great times with many more to come.

To my teammates and coaches, thanks for making my athletic career a special one. There's no other group of kids or coaches I would rather take the baseball or football field with. It's been a great ride.

Kristen Elizabeth Corbett

Kristen,

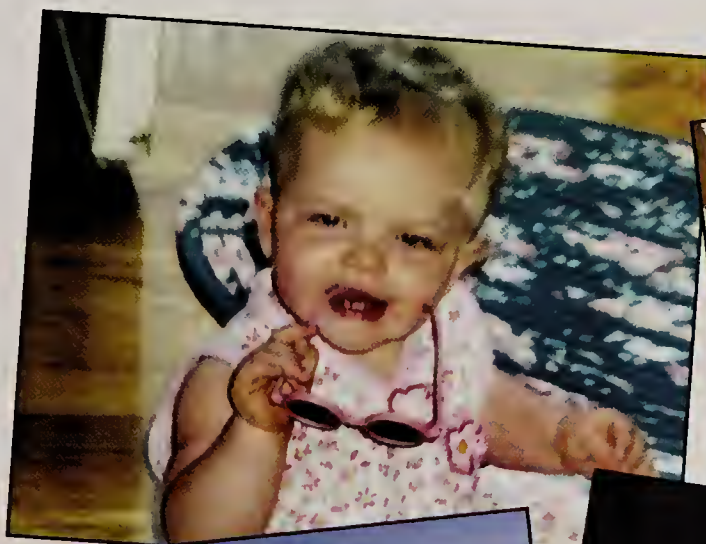

"If you want to change the world, start off
by making your bed. Measure a person by the size of their heart. Sometimes you have to slide down the obstacle head first. Don't back down from the sharks. Be your very best in the darkest moments. Start singing when you are up to your neck in mud and never, ever ring
that bell!"

--- Admiral William McRaven

Keep these words with you on your next journey in life and read them over and over. We are very proud of you and the drive and ambition you had over these past four years at RMHS.

Believe in miracles, and always believe in YOU!!!

We love you,
